

Dodge Ball Rules

- Each team is on a different side of the room with a line dividing them
- To start the game the balls will be on the line
- When the game starts, each player will race to grab a ball on the line
- The player's that have a ball will touch the wall on their side with the ball
- Players are then able to throw the ball at the players on the other team
- To get a player out, a player is hit with a ball by the other team. A player can catch the ball an opponent throws, which means the opponent who threw the ball is out
- Headshots are allowed
- A referee will call out players who get hit with a ball, or if a ball is caught by the opponent
- If someone catches a ball, a player on their team that is out can come back into the game
- The team that has the last person standing wins
- Depending on time winner will be determined by one game or best of 3
